Guidelines for Graduate Student Subsidies of Publishing
SCI Journal Articles

Enacted by the 2015 1st Institute Affairs Committee Meeting on Oct., 13, 2015

Article I The Guidelines are enacted to encourage graduate students of the Institute to conduct research and elevate the level of academic research.

Article II Qualification: Any graduate student of the Institute (not include in-service student) who publishes articles in the SCI journals as the primary author or corresponding author.

Article III Range of awards: Each article will be subsidized NT$5,000. The recipient of the subsidy is limited to one person only.

Article IV When applying, the applicant must submit the following materials to the Institute:

- (1) Application form (as Appendix)
- (2) A photocopy of the acceptance document, acceptance letter, or publish record from the SCI journal

Article V Application period: Application can be submitted upon arrival of the acceptance letter from the SCI journal or after published.

Article VI Assessment: The application will be assessed by the Institute's Teaching and Curriculum Committee members and the Director. The subsidy will be distributed once approved.

Article VII In principle, this subsidy will be allocated from the Institute's endowment account (endowment budgets) and is subject to change or suspension due to adjusted amounts of the endowment.

Article VIII This guideline is enforced after being passed by the Institute Affair Committee Meeting. Further amendments shall be applied as well.
