Notes:

1. Eligibility: Master's and doctoral students of this Institute (excluding those who are currently employed). Proof of not being subsidized by the Ministry of Science and Technology needs to be submitted.
2. Amount of the subsidy: NT$15,000 to cover the registration and application fees (or handling fee). Only one student per paper will be subsidized.
3. An oral report on the paper presented at a conference should be given in English via videoconferencing. The report should also be fully recorded.

4. When applying for a subsidy, please submit information on the conference, the full text of the paper, and information on presentation (including the video file of the oral report in English).
5. Only three people per conference will be subsidized. In principle, an applicant will be subsidized once in the same academic year.
